Introducing Edetària of DO Terra Alta (AWS Direct Import)

Edetaria is located in Terra Alta, Spain, producing sustainable, authentic wines with indigenous old vine varieties in a unique terroir with a strong personality. Minerality, complexity, balance and elegance are the essence of these wines. A wine is the reflection of its author, designer and producer and many consider Edetaria one of the top Mediterranean wines of Catalonia.

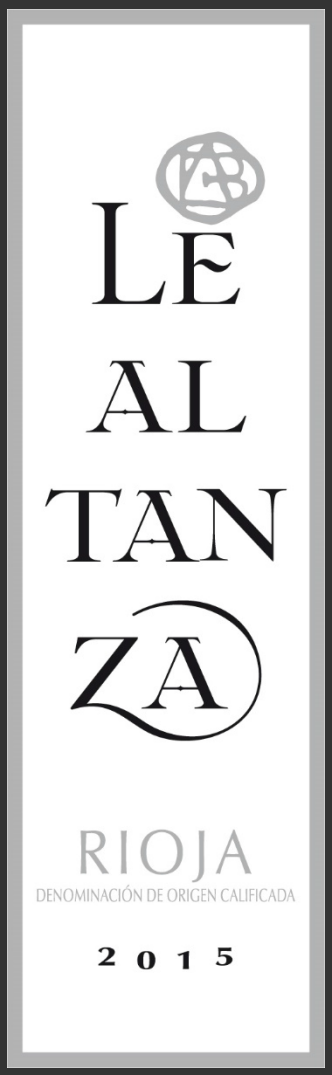
Introducing Bodegas Altanza (AWS Direct Import)



Bodegas Altanza is located in Fuenmayor (Rioja Alta) and was founded in October 1998. The estate spans 300 ha. It was created with a clear, well-defined purpose: making quality, livelier than classical Rioja wines, and marketing them at a fair price. Tradition is not only reflected in the beautiful main building and French gardens, but also in the variety they prefer for all red wines: Tempranillo, and certain winemaking features, like the choice of vertical basket presses or the extra value added to the ageing process by nine 22,000L Allier vats.

Technology can mainly be seen in their stainless-steel tanks of several sizes, which allows for a better, more flexible "personalization", all equipped with temperature-control jackets and surveyed by a control panel.

Two hundred samples of yeasts are cultured from their own vineyards and are selected down to the two most suitable according to on-going trials in the lab. This, yet another example of attention to detail and exacting winemaking to achieve the best results possible.

All the reds are 100% Tempranillo, the "queen" of Rioja varieties, and the most popular in Spain.

The Rioja Blanco is made of 100% Sauvignon Blanc (No oak).

Altanza prefers French-oak ageing, though there is a small amount of American casks, used only for the Gran Reserva. Casks are renewed every 5 years.

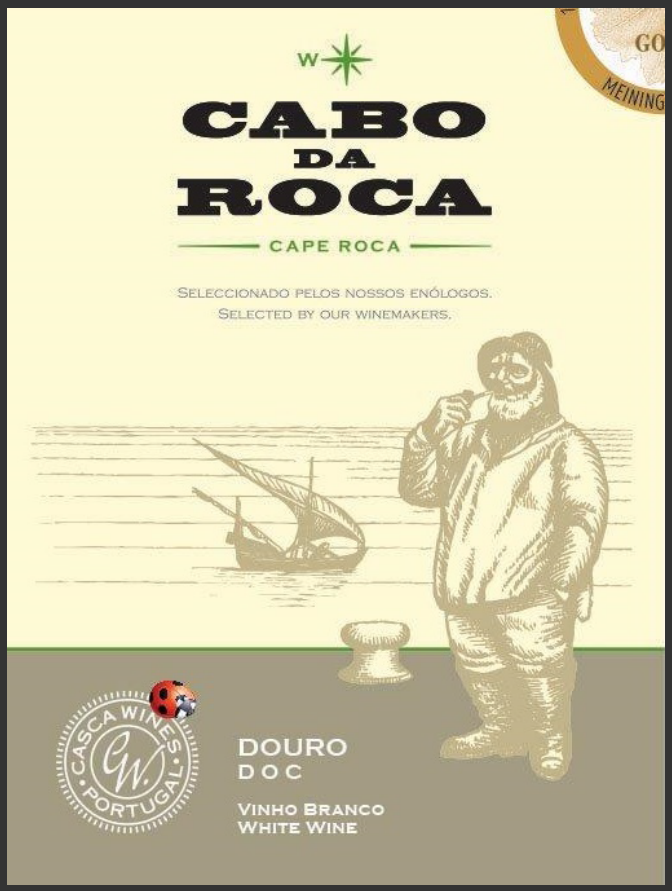
Introducing Cabo da Roca (AWS Direct Import)

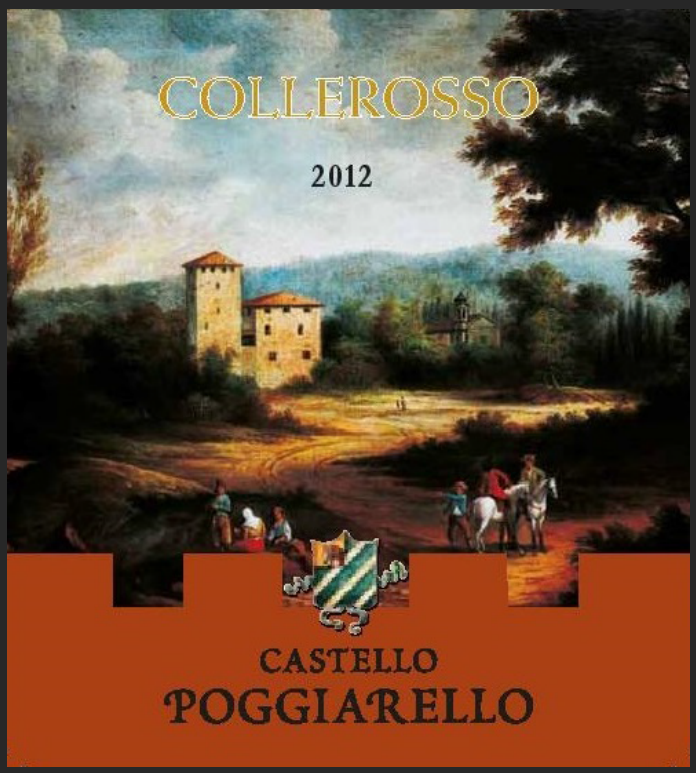


Cabo da Roca is a project of winemakers and wine experts who decided to create a high quality Portuguese Wine brand. A project that only works with the best grapes and tries to renew Portugal's unique tradition in winemaking.

Founding winemaker Helder Cunha is an experienced winemaker who started his career in Napa Valley making great Pinot Noir at Ken Rasmussen Winery. He finished studies at Geisenhein Research Center and started to work in Douro Valley at Vinhos do Douro Superior. Later, he joined Vinhos Borges, where he won the Grand Medal d'Or at Concour Mondial de Bruxelles. In 2008 he established Casca Wines, which is the first Portuguese wine company to produce wines in 10 different DOCs.

Clean, fresh and vibrant, with impeccable balance, Cabo Da Roca represents incredible value in Portugese modern winemaking.

Introducing Castello Poggiarello (AWS Direct Import)



Castello Poggiarello is located at the foot of the Sienese Montagnola.
The first traces and documentation referring to the Castle date back to year 1100 a.d.
At that time only the embattled tower with a pyramid shaped base and archer windows were visible and the structure was used to provide military control of the territory to the southwest of the Siena Republic. Prince Augustine organized the large estate into unified smaller farms under the family's control. The successors then continued making changes according to the living conditions of the time: maintaining, unaltered, the fortified characteristics of the property and placing a cover over the embattled towers. Additional farm houses were built for the workers and, at the same time, the production of wine from the vineyards and olive oil from the olive grove became the most important agricultural products for the estate.

The estate's 12 hectares of terrain and wooded area have recently been brought back to life as a small organic farm: 8 hectares of vineyards, 2 hectares of olive groves and 2 hectares of woods.
The Vineyard's red soil is mineral rich of iron and calcium carbonate (a mixture of sand, silt, clay and limestone mix).
The Estate produces three excellent wines:
Colleroso: An equal mix of Cabernet Franc and Merlot
Montebruno: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon
Montechiaro: 100% Cabernet Franc
All wines are certified organic by Bioagricert, though there is no mention of this on the labels.
